

Kelly L. Crisci

March 15, 1964 - September 12, 2020

Our beloved mother, Kelly Lynn Crisci, suddenly on September 12, 2020 gained her angel wings and joined her loved ones beyond those pearly gates in heaven to watch over us and wait for all those she loved to meet her there.

Kelly was born to a loving mother, Marilyn Maxwell and her father, Philip King on March 15, 1964 in Hartford City, Indiana. She lived in Indiana for many years before deciding she was ready for the sun and the sand with her momma and dad, Zina "Mack" Maxwell on Anna Maria Island in Bradenton, FL. While living on the island she attended Bayshore Highschool and made many friends. There she also met, married, and began her family with James Tyler Daniel. During the marriage, she became a loving step mother to 3 beautiful girls Angela, Eileen, and Shannon and had one beach baby of her own, James Daniel, before moving to northern Florida. In northern Florida, she gave birth to two beautiful daughters, Jessica Marie Bruce and Leah Kay Daniel. Later in life, with her flower child like love for the world, she met Thomas Crisci and moved to a little town in up state New York called Monroe. There she married Tom and became an in home daycare center where she spent her time caring for other people's children just as she cared for her own. She touched the lives of all the young children living in the neighborhood and became great figure in their lives. Years later her roots came back to the Sunny land of Florida where she lived the remainder of her life in the area of Chiefland, FL. Kelly spent those years raising her children, at times taking in her children's friends and loving them, welcoming 5 amazing grandchildren, becoming a mother figure for her children's siblings Elizabeth and Austin, cheering on her nieces and nephews, making countless of true friends, giving everyone she met hope and a smile, experiencing her first real heartbreak saying goodbye to her dad and then spent the rest of her time becoming soul sisters with her momma. She managed a local convenience store, Manatee Jiffy, for many years before becoming disabled. Kelly had a love for life and for every person she met. She loved God, read the Bible and believed in Heaven and knew she would fly away there one day to wait for all those she carried daily in her heart to join her.

Kelly leaves behind to one day join her in Heaven her momma- Marilyn Maxwell, her father- Philip King, her son- James Daniel (Jessica Mathis), her daughters- Jessica Bruce (Bradsman Williams) and Leah Daniel (John Hall) her grandchildren- Alexis and Kelsey Daniel, Makaylee and Keian Bruce, John Hunter Hall. Her brother- Tracy King(Ruth King) and her sisters- Kimberly Walton (Joshua walton), Shelly Maxwell James (Randy James), and Kelly Maxwell Yoder. She is survived also by 12 nieces and nephews and their families as well as her two beloved pets Lily and Buster.

When entering the gates of heaven she was welcomed by her Dad, Zina "Mack" Maxwell, her niece Brandy and beloved dogs Buddy, JR, Casper, Pepper, and Rowdy.

“ I have come to leave something beautiful, something needed, something powerful.

To all those my grandmother loves!

It is hard to find the words to write, but in the end all that remains is love...

So I will write the truth, because it especially now when the truth comes most easy.

Our love gathers here to remember a beloved woman. She is now among the stars in heaven. And on a quiet night that is most clear you can feel them looking back to you. And you know she is with you.

Everyone must remember Grandma Kelly's passing and in celebrating her life know this is not about them, but how she loved us all and what she has left behind for us all to remember.

This is about her and every moment she has made with you. This is for every individual who loves her to find the understanding they need and to have closure in truth; to admit what is most clear at the end.

We recognize something.

The love for everyone gathered in her name bring us something deeper.

That it is not death that separates us from those we love, but the conflict within ourselves that keeps us from them.

When love finds you that is the true peace.

But you must want for it, you must first miss it.

I know where she is and Jesus knows the same.

Send unto them the love from heaven and let them know we are gathered to commemorate and celebrate her life.

Not to feel icky inside or to weep tears of regret, or hold within any hate or bitterness towards another.

But to practice love and rejoice, for on this good day we have learned a truth most important.

What matters more in life than the people you love and the people others share with you connecting us all?

Death is what makes you perfect; it is when all wrong is released from you and love is the only thing left living to find its way.

She is now watching and always with you.

Some of you will see this now others will understand it later.

Do not forget your place as children in heaven.

We will all meet again and this time it is forever in love.

For the lovers of truth will never know death and find life always through the lamb.

Salvation is not for the selfish, but for those who know love.

I know she has found her perfect place and is waiting for you all to do the same.

Life is a chance to change.

God rests his beloved children so I know Grandma Kelly has found the same.
