“ The Earth has lost a beautiful soul but Heaven is a sweeter place because she is there .. Mrs Pollard was always laughing and enjoying the people around her .. She was loving and genuinely caring towards everyone that crossed her path .. She was the type of person that you knew could be trusted with anything .. and above all , she loved her family fiercely and her legacy of love will continue with the family values she instilled in them . She is at the top of my list of who I will run to when I enter those pearly gates ! I pray today that her family will be held together strong with the love of God , knowing that she is with Him and those who went before her .
