

Andrew Santangini Jr.

January 17, 1944 - November 23, 2025

Andrew Victor Santangini, Jr., 81, of Old Town, Florida, passed away on November 23, 2025. He was born on January 17, 1944, in Greenville, Mississippi, to the late Florence and Andrew Santangini, Sr. Affectionately known by many as “Sip” or “Sippy,” he made his home in Dixie County for more than 35 years and was cherished by countless friends and neighbors.

Mr. Santangini was a Veteran of the United States Navy, serving in the Vietnam War. He owned and operated Andrew V. Santangini Commercial Real Estate Appraisals in Gainesville, Florida, for over 45 years. A respected professional in his field, he was a longtime MIA Member of the Appraisers Institute and was known for his dedication, integrity, and expertise. In his spare time, Mr. Santangini was an avid hunter and fisherman, passions that brought him great joy throughout his life. He even became a certified boat captain, spending many days on the water doing what he loved most.

Mr. Santangini is survived by his wife Susan Pettus, his daughters Laura Creed (Skipper) and Elizabeth Bolin (Jay), his grandchildren Ben and Sam, his brother John Santangini (Barbara), and other extended family members.

Graveside funeral services for Mr. Santangini will be held 10:00 AM Monday, December 1, 2025 at the Old Town Memorial Cemetery in Old Town, with Tom Griffiths officiating.

Arrangements have been placed under the care of Rick Gooding Funeral Home Cross City Chapel, with locations in Cross City 352-498-5400 and Chiefland 352-493-0050. Please sign the online guest book at rickgoodingfuneralhomes.com
