

Annie M. Kight

April 10, 1938 - June 2, 2018

Annie Marie Kight, 80, of Old Town passed away June 2, 2018.

Mrs. Kight was born April 10, 1938 to the late Carl and Betty Scott in Knoxville, Tennessee, but had lived in the Old Town area for over 30 years after moving here from Yankeetown, Florida. She was a teacher with Dixie County Public Schools for over 30 years, before her retirement. Mrs. Kight had worked with many different schools across the state and had coached or played softball for over 40 years. She was a member of the First United Methodist Church in Cross City, the Dixie Hunting Club, and had helped found the Levy County Little League. In her spare time, Mrs. Kight enjoyed hunting, traveling, and reading.

Mrs. Kight is survived by her son David Williams, her daughters Audrey Quesenberry (Everett), Elaine Mcbain (Angus), and Ellen Priest (Jeff), her daughter-in-law Kathy Williams, her brother Charlie Scott, her sisters Amy Scott and Pat Gates, 17 grandchildren, 25 great-grandchildren, 3 great-great-grandchildren, and other extended family members. She was preceded in death by her husbands Edward, Joe, and her last Horace Kight, her sons Don Williams and John Paul Williams, her brothers Steve Scott and Dubby Scott, and her sister Francis Howard.

The family will hold a memorial service in honor of Mrs. Kight at a later date.
