“ I became part of the family when I was about 11 or 12 years old, April accepted me broken wings and all. She never treated me any different then like a little sister, yes we even fought like it sometimes. She and I had a bond that could never be broken, she truly was an amazing person, who I will deeply miss so much! I loved her beyond words & will remember her forever. Rest In Peace sweet Angel!

“ I would first like to say a prayer, for this family, it's been a rough year for yall, but God is with all of you in this time of pain. God has his ways of doing things we may not understand. We lost a wonderful, beautiful, kind heart young lady. I have many memories with April as so many others. The smiles, the big hugs and ears to listen. We lost a strong, and loving person. To her hubby Joel prayers are with you , cause you loved her with everything you had, as did she love you too. To her parents, Im sorry for your lose, be strong for her boys and her beautiful sisters. Her memory will be will lots of people, but God needed both Matt and April more than this life did... God bless you all 🙏 Kellee Asbell

“ April was a classmate of mine, she was a beautiful kind person. I coached her 2 years in powderpuff in high school and we were champions both years. I didn't get to know her much after high School but I know she will be missed greatly. April May you rest in peace, and to the family I'm sorry for your loss and I will keep you in my prayers.
