“ Beth was a fun person with a big heart. She would do anything for you. I remember all the trips we took with my brother and Beth. My husband liked to travel a little and Richard and Beth were with us a lot. We all lived in Maine for awhile . When my son graduated from the Coast Guard Dick and Beth drove down to Jersey with us . We all ended up in FI and loved it so much made FI our home. When we retired we moved to Old Town to be with our fun partners. I will remember her for all the good and bad times we had. She was a very giving (of herself) person. God will take good care of her and most important she is with her Mom whom she loved so much and missed greatly. Love you Beth and tks for the good memories. love sister in law Claire
