“ Uncle Billy Ray came to visit us in San Diego when my Dad was in the Navy. During a thunderstorm, we three girls , all under six, were scared. My parents each held a younger sister, and there was no lap for me. Uncle Billy Ray let me sit in his lap. He was a kind person. He was gentle to all, especially children and dogs. He could be fun, too, and reminded me of his father, my Gran. So sad that he has passed.
