

Bob Wert

February 25, 1949 - April 7, 2025

Robert Allen Wert Sr., known as "Bob," passed away on April 7, 2025, at the age of 76. Born on February 25, 1949, in Ensley Township, Michigan.

Bob honorably served his country as an Army veteran from April 22, 1969, to April 16, 1971.

He spent many years in Grant, MI, where he became a respected member of the community and a devoted owner of Wert's Greenhouses.

Following his retirement, Bob and his beloved wife, Judy Wert, who preceded him in death in 2017, made their home in Cross City, Florida. There, they cherished their time together, remodeling their house and embarking on spontaneous adventures. They created lasting memories while visiting their children each summer, embracing the warmth of family and the joy of togetherness.

A loving father, uncle, and grandfather, Bob leaves behind his children: Robert Wert Jr., Amy Bonter (Josh), and Mindy Wert. He took great pride in his role as a grandfather to Jamie Bonter, Kalub Bonter, and Thomas Wert, as well as a great-grandfather to Harper and Jameson Hubbard.

During his retirement, Bob found joy in home projects, particularly woodworking, which showcased his creativity and dedication to craftsmanship. His passion for creating reflected his caring nature and deep love for his home and family.

A celebration of life for both Bob and Judy will be held this summer, bringing together family and friends to honor their memories and the love they shared.
