“ Bobby, we miss you dearly! Our boys love you as do we. There are no words to express the loss of another warrior. You are an amazing friend that I am proud to have known. You had the brains of a genius and your sarcastic sense of humor and kind heart will be missed deeply. We love you Bobby. Much love and respect from California, the Clark family.

“ Marcy & Donnie, I did not know your children, but I knew you. I watched loving parents work hard at giving their children the best that they could. I cannot imagine your grief losing a child, but I know what living through the loss of someone I love feels like. I can only offer the following words from experience.

"There are moments that mark your life. Moments when you realize nothing will ever be the same and time is divided ~ before this, and after this. " I pray for peace and comfort for you and your family.
