

Charles E. Richardson

March 21, 1937 - February 16, 2021

Charles Richardson was an amazing father, grandfather and great grandfather. He is survived by his sons; Stephen Richardson, Michael Richardson, Charles Eli Richardson, and Jeremy Richardson. He is survived by his daughters; Bobbie Lea Dailey and Brittneigh Richardson. He is survived by his younger brother, Joe Richardson. He has 10 grandchildren, 8 great grandchildren, and 3 great-great grandchildren.

He was a kind and caring person, who would help his family in any way that he could. And adopted and raised grand kids and great grandkids. He was all about family and enjoyed spending time with family and doing things with his family.

He worked as a plumber to take care of and raise his family, and he did that for about fifty years before he was injured and retired.

Any opportunity to have a good time, he was in, and two of his favorite things to do was to go riding around somewhere with no particular destination. It wasn't about where he was going, it was about trip. The other thing he loved to do was to go fishing, whether it be on a boat or on the shore.
