“ I feel so honored to have crossed paths with Charlotte Corbin. I had the greatest pleasure of working with her in my classroom at Anderson Elementary School. I watched as she worked with students in small groups, giving them the help, love, and attention they so needed. They loved her dearly as did I. I loved our talks and most of all, her hugs. She always smelled so heavenly. Charlotte was kind-hearted, considerate, compassionate, inspirational, and so full of love. Most importantly, she was a Godly woman. May God comfort her family and friends.
