“ *The Scriptures tell us that it is far better to be with Fatner then to remain on Earth. He died for us so you could be wrapped in his eternal love and care.
What can be better than that.*

“ I met Chris at Canvas Motorcycle Group and immediately like him. He was a great guy, family man, great husband and father. And boy did he love riding his motorcycle. He will be greatly missed. My love and condolences to his family.

“ We are deeply heartbroken over the loss of Christ. In the short time we knew him, he became so much more than a friend—he became a brother. The memories we made together, especially on the Sturgis trip, will forever be a cherished part of our lives. During that time, we got to see his true character—his kindness, patience, and caring nature made every moment special and unforgettable. He really was the glue that held us all together. Chris brought so much joy, laughter, and friendship to our lives, both on and off the road. His absence leaves a void that words cannot fill, but his memory will always ride alongside us, etched into every curve of the road and every shared story. No one could ever fill his Crocs! We love you Amy and Ashlynn, praying for peace and comfort.
