

Claude "Butch" Sikes

July 6, 1960 - April 19, 2018

Claude Eugene Sikes, "Butch" 57, of Chiefland, Florida, passed away on Thursday, April 19, 2018.

Butch was the owner of Veteran Drywall and was once a Volunteer Firefighter for the Fowlers Bluff Fire Department. He was born and raised in South Florida but moved to Chiefland in 1999 along with his wife, 3 children, grandmother and aunt. He loved cooking, hunting, fishing, gardening, and raising animals. He was the type of man that would give you the shirt off his back if someone was in need. His personality, his kindness and his humor drew people in; he was greatly admired by all that knew him. His love for his family was never ending and never selfish and he never met anyone that wasn't an instant friend. He will be forever loved and missed by his family and friends and will never be forgotten.

He is survived by his loving wife, Jodi Sikes of Chiefland, FL; his oldest daughter, Deanna McDaniel and his son-in-law, James McDaniel of Chiefland, FL; his son, John Sikes of Chiefland, FL; his youngest daughter Taylor Sikes of Chiefland, FL; his mother, Elizabeth Garcia of Inverness, FL; his sister, Susan Sikes of Inverness, FL, his nephew, Jake Kuhar of Naples, FL and his sweet companions, Lexie and Mollie.

A memorial service will be held for Mr. Sikes 4:00 PM Saturday, April 21, 2018 at the Rick Gooding Funeral Home Chiefland Chapel, with Jonathan Dampf officiating.

“ Butch's passing is difficult for everyone who loved him. Butch spent a lot of time when he was a teenager at my house when I lived in Pioneer. He was quite the adventurer and explorer. He loved the woods he was in his element when he was in them. He lived his life doing what he loved most and was a true family man. I always believed he was born a century to late and would have fit in easily as a Pioneer man. We have all of our memories and Love NEVER dies. Please accept my prayers for you and your family. Your dad is now with God all of our loved ones who have passed before us.
