“ After my grandma Lulubelle died it was hard to stay in touch with granddaddy David. He was my step grandfather but by all accounts he was more than that. It felt like the more I called the worse he seemed to feel. Even after he remarried when I'd call he'd get sad. So I started calling less and less. Till so much time had passed I didn't even know he had passed on to Jesus. I hate that we didn't stay in touch and now I've missed any sort of mending we could have done. It's too late for that but I hope he now knows for sure that I love him as my biological grandfather. He was and will forever be my granddaddy David. No matter what. I'm posting a teddy bear because he was like a teddy bear. Loved the woods!!! I think that was his safe place when my grandma Lulubelle drove him crazy haha. And Lord knows she could drive anyone crazy haha. Granddaddy was such a kind man and a patient man. I love you and I miss you please give grandma a hug from me.
