

David W. Willoughby Sr.

April 25, 1961 - August 2, 2017

DAVID WILLIAM WILLOUGHBY, SR. 56, of Old Town passed away August 2, 2017.

David was born April 25, 1961 to the late Robert and Hortense Willoughby in Green Cove Springs, Florida, but had lived in the Old Town area for over 15 years after moving from St. Petersburg, Florida. He was a member of the Dixie County Volunteer Fire Department for over 15 years, a Mason in the St. Petersburg, Florida area, and member of the Faith in the Word Assembly Church in Old Town, Florida. In his spare time David enjoyed fishing, hunting, and mudding, but most of all spending quality time with all his grandchildren.

David Willoughby, Sr. is survived by his wife of 38 years Dolores Sonia Willoughby, his sons David William Willoughby, Jr. and Walter Charles Willoughby, Sr., his daughters Jamie Lynn Willoughby, Kimberly Le'Anna Willoughby, and Jill Nolan, a sister Thelma Sue Chanthaboury, nine grandchildren, a very close friend Lynette Wheeler Ellison and her sons Dustin Wheeler and Joel Eady, a friend Christie Mathis, and other extended family members.

The family will hold a memorial service in honor of David Willoughby, Sr. 1:00 PM Saturday, August 19, 2017 at the Faith in the Word Assembly Church in Old Town, Florida.

Arrangements have been placed under the care of Rick Gooding Funeral Home, Cross City, Florida, 352-498-5400 and Chiefland, Florida, 352-493-0050. Please sign the online guest book at rickgoodingfuneralhomes.com

Previous Events

Service

AUG 19. 1:00 PM (ET)

Faith in the Word Assembly
hwy 19
old town, FL 32680

Tribute Wall

“ David W. Willoughby Sr.

October 08, 2023 at 10:03 PM

“ David W. Willoughby Sr.

January 30, 2023 at 01:26 AM

KW

“ Well let's see this was my father and I got to say we did have are ups and downs but we pulled threw it and Lord know my dad was in tremendous pain everyday he had to give himself numerous shots for his diabetes and I here to day as a live testament left of being only a very few of us willoughbys left life is to short to hold all your anger and ambitious in and I as David Willoughby youngest daughter i can say this my father was a brave man not only did he take care of my two biological brothers David jr and Walter and my sister Jamie on top of it all he took all Donna and Ray branches children in his home opened his door to them like they where one of his own so as for that being said I want my father to know that I was very happy and proud of the way him and my mother Dolores Willoughby raised me with have being ten kids in the house not including the adults he also supported but I can say this I couldn't even image but then again I can because im one of the kids and I sure do know what he went threw but im glad today in August 19 because now not only I but also my sister Jamie will be a peace when we lay are father to rest and for him to know we will be here showing a good example of us and how he raised us so as all I just said I want my father David William Willoughby SR born 4/25/1961-8/2/2017 to know that I surely do miss and love him with all my heart so daddy please read this slowly and remember you did show me about the Bible and Kevin finished so any how I promise won't know one hold me back from my goal you want me to conquer I love you!!!!

Kimberly Willoughby - August 19, 2017 at 05:11 AM

Jill
Nolan

“ You were truly a great friend to me. I truly miss you every day since you left this earth. I spoke to you on the phone almost daily. You were essentially one of the very few people who were there for me after my father passed away. You even saved my life twice. You did a lot for me, and I am forever grateful. Thank you for being my friend and a favorite cousin.

Jill Nolan - August 16, 2017 at 10:07 AM