

Frank Alane Infinger

February 18, 1976 - February 22, 2022

Frank Alane Infinger, 46, of Old Town, Florida, left this world Tuesday, February 22, 2022 after a vehicle accident near his home.

Frank was born February 18, 1976 in Gainesville, Florida and has been a life-long resident of Dixie County.

Most recently, he was self-employed, along with his three sons, working as a pole barn installer.

In the past, he worked at Citrus Pipeline, at a young age, learning to operate equipment, install water and sewer lines, mechanical and welding. He also worked for many years with Stephenson's Septic Tank Services in Old Town.

Frank loved spending time with his family and enjoyed building big trucks and swamp buggies; the bigger, the better!

Mostly, he enjoyed being with his boys, teaching them what he knew and always took time to play in the mud and make memories.

He is survived by his mother, Ruby Kate Walker of Cross City; three sons, Tristan, Cameron and Frank Infinger, Jr. all of Cross City; sister, Pearl Millard of Cross City; nieces, nephews and many extended family members and friends.

Funeral Services for Frank will be held at 11:00 AM Sunday, February 27,

2022 at Rick Gooding Funeral Home Cross City Chapel. Visitation will be one hour prior to the service at the funeral home. Burial will follow at Cross City Cemetery.

Arrangements have been placed under the care of the Rick Gooding Funeral Home Cross City Chapel, with locations in Cross City 352-498-5400 and Chiefland 352-493-0050. Please sign the online guest book at rickgoodingfuneralhomes.com
