

George J. Warren

November 1, 1951 - April 19, 2021

George Joseph Warren of Chiefland FL passed away unexpectedly Monday April 19, 2021 at UF Health Shands Hospital in Gainesville FL. He was 69 years young.

He was born in Dana, IN on November 1, 1951, living the majority of his life in Aiken SC. George was preceded in death by his parents Frederick Ellsworth Warren and Mary Agnes Grappotte Warren and his late wife Sara White Warren. George was a welder by trade, a project construction manager, and an estimator. He was a character, had a great sense of humor, loved life, never met a stranger, and always kept everyone around him well entertained. George relocated to Florida in 2017. He was very active in farming, gardening, and enjoyed being out on the Suwannee River. He truly enjoyed his Florida home he shared with his loving partner and companion Ellen White Rice (Chiefland FL) and their two fur babies Skipper and Gracie Rae; and having his sister and her family close by. George is survived by his son Gregory Joseph Warren (Augusta GA); his sister and brother-in-law Karen and David Adams (Chiefland FL), their son Jeremy Warren and his wife Bernadette (Lehigh Acres FL); his sister Mary Ann Campbell (Aiken SC) her daughters and spouses Stacy and Danny Ideca (Aiken, SC), Lauren and Billy Albritton (Denver CO); his brother and spouse Frederick Ellsworth Warren Jr and Linda (Aiken SC).

Arrangements have been placed under the care of the Rick Gooding Funeral Home Chiefland Chapel, with locations in Cross City 352-498-5400 and Chiefland 352-493-0050. Please sign the online guest book at rickgoodingfuneralhomes.com

Tribute Wall

“ George J. Warren

October 08, 2023 at 10:03 PM

“ George J. Warren

January 30, 2023 at 01:26 AM

DB

My deepest sympathy to the family and another angel in heaven...rest in peace, George. You will be missed by all who knew you and loved you so. Debby Jones Buchert

Debby Buchert - August 20, 2024 at 10:12 AM