

Guye Daniels Jr.

December 4, 1946 - June 11, 2025

Guye Harold Daniels, Jr., 78, of Old Town, Florida, passed away on June 11, 2025. He was born on December 4, 1946 in Greensboro, North Carolina. He was the oldest son of three born to Guye and Wilma Daniels.

The Daniels family moved to Naples, Florida, where Guye was a graduate of Naples High School. He joined the Navy after graduation, where he served for four years in Vietnam.

Guye married his High School Sweetheart, Victoria Rose Leith, on October 19, 1968, and they had two sons, Judd and Jason Daniels. Jason predeceased his father at the age of two. Guye became a United States Postal Carrier for the Federal Government in Naples, Florida after returning home from the Navy. Always with a smile and a joke or two, he was loved by the people on his mail route.

Guye and Vicki moved to Old Town, where he enjoyed motorcycling, fishing, cruising and being an active member of Joppa 4 Masonic Lodge, along with his brother Eric Daniels. He was a Past District Instructor, as well as a Past District Deputy Grand Master.

Guye enjoyed spending time with his grandson, Jason travelling to Nascar and Gatornational races.

Guye is survived by his son, Judd (Anita), his grandchildren, Kati Daniels, Jason and Alexandra Senicola, his aunts and his cousins.

Guye is in heaven with the love of his life, Vicki, and his brothers, Brian and Eric. May God bless them in ever loving peace.

A Masonic Memorial Service will be held at 2:00 PM on Wednesday, July 30, 2025 at the Rick Gooding Funeral Home Cross City Chapel.
