“ When we first came to Bethel Phyllis and Harless took us right in and treated us like family immediately. One thing that I remember of Harless is his love for his family and church family. He was a quiet gentle man. He always had that smile and sweet spirit.

“ Harliss, you will missed especially you calling me by my nickname. I can still hear you calling me that. I promise you and your family that I will see you again one day.

“ Harless was a very sweet man. We thought a lot of him. Enjoyed camping and church with him. He always had a joke to tell us. He was so funny. He's probably up there trying to pull something on Moses right now. Love you Mr Wilson! And praying for Mrs Wilson 😊 and family

“ I have only fond memories of Harless. I was never around him that my spirits were not lifted. His goodness was unmatched (except perhaps from his wife Phyllis). I regret that he beat me to heaven.

“ My first thoughts of Harless is the smile (Phyllis too). Just simple everyday life at church, food & fellowship or an outreach, when my eyes would meet either Harless, Phyllis or both they instantly give you a joyful, warm smile. I so value all of those smiles, the laughter, the warm kindness. Being near them both was like this double portion of warmth & love that just makes you feel...joy- contagious Christian joy. I choose to remember Harless this way, the way his light did so shine, which also reminds me that he is indeed in the arms of our Savior, whole, home and happy. I look forward to when I see my brother again in heaven
