James Anthony "Ankie" Cannon, age 61, went to be with his Heavenly Father on Saturday, January 12, 2019. He was surrounded by the presence of God and both his earthly and heavenly family.

Ankie was born on October 29, 1957 to J. D. and Virginia Cannon. Ankie married the love of his life, Debbie O'steen Cannon on May 25, 1979. God blessed them with a beautiful daughter, Jessica; whom he adored.

Ankie was a faithful servant in all areas of his life. Some of the things that Ankie was passionate about was his love of Jesus, his family, his friends, his sawmill, logging, hunting and running his dogs. Ankie has been a hard worker all of his life. Ankie started his logging career employed by Junior Roberts, working for several logging outfits, including Bill Rollison, Frank Robson, Ricky Robson and was currently with VanAernam Timber Management. In between hunting seasons, when he wasn't working in the logging woods he could be found working at his own sawmill.

Ankie was a devoted member of the Pentecostal Holiness Church where he confessed his faith in Jesus Christ at an early age.

Ankie is awaiting in heaven to be joined by his wife of 39 years Debbie O'steen Cannon; his daughter Jessica (Dell) Mathis; his mother-in-law Gaye O'steen; his parents, J. D. and Virginia Cannon; brothers, David (Pam) Cannon and Timmy (Lynn) Cannon; sister Delene (Jody) Robson; uncle/brother Tommy (Diane) Hamilton and a host of nieces and nephews. Ankie joined the celebration in heaven with a host of family members, including his father-in-law Bobby W. O'steen.

“ Ankie has always been a part of my life .we grew up and played in the same neighborhood and went to the same church. He is what is called a good man . One who is honest steadfast and who loved his family, parents wife and daughter. A work ethic that is known throughout the county. He is greatly missed but we know He is having the time of his eternal life .
