What a beautiful tribute. Thank you for posting it. I was unable to make it to Florida for the service. May Allen rest in eternal peace in the arms of the Lord.

“ There aren't a whole lot of childhood memories that don't include Allen in them. He was and always will be a huge part of what makes me who I am today. It has been quite a few years since I've seen him, but I always considered him a part of my family. I wish I could be there to celebrate his life with the rest of the family. I'm praying for you all, that the Lord gives you peace during this difficult time. God bless.

“ Allen, forever will be remembered for his big heart and that great big grin, he'd give to just about anyone. He wasn't afraid to laugh at himself, as long as we were all laughing, too. Allen would give you the shirt off his back. He was generous and kind. He would remind, I you it all the good you had within you and with life, he'd tell you to never forget the blessings you have. Sending prayers to his loved ones and sending love to Holly. (Things might've been rough at times but, the love they shared was real.) May all the people Allen loved, find peace in their hearts and are able to mourn with grace & love surrounding them. May you all find strength in the memories he left you with. He will be missed.

“ Allen, my dear friend, Allen... my heart & soul is so crushed by your passing. I grieve as though I am blood related, but through the love of God and His grace, you came into my life, and our friendship and love for each other never waivered over the 32 years I've known you.

Your smile, laughter and eagerness to help me, whenever I needed help, you were always happy and willing to do so... and I'll never forget it. Your engery and heart for thrills and fun were endless. You took life by the horns and road it for all it was worth. You lived fearless and with great spirit. I admired your love, and excitement you got out of each experience you shared with me.

From the beach, the lake, the Sheriff's Office Explorer program, Halloween parties or snow skiing in West Virginia... those times together will be forever cherished my brother. I was so blessed to have shared that part of my life with you.

I'll forever remember your kindness and charity in my heart. Thank you for being there during my days of sorrow and grief. You were tremendous and understanding.

I'll miss you til my dying day. I look forward to seeing your beautiful spirit in our Father's Kingdom. Rest in Peaceful, loving eternity Allen.
