“ I just found out about jim passing on to the other side where his maker now assists him with his future. As a fellow mason to you and all others you are missed emmencely by all. As i was being raised as a Master Mason you showed up at that meeting I had never suspected you to be a brother to me and you had scared the heck out of me that night. Since then we became great friends as well as to my mother and father Jeanne and Sam. I am very sorry for not saying my good byes and I will give all the help I can to your wonderful wife Lee. Through the years of our friendship i am very proud to say that I knew the both of you for many years. As we move forward for the rest of our lives we will meet again in that after life. God Speed Jim and God Bless you for eternity. I know you have helped many in this world that you have now left and stand guard at the heavens for our visit to you. What a friend and fellow brother you have been here on earth and the coming.
