

Jimmy Ray McCall Jr

February 4, 1967 - July 3, 2025

Jimmy Ray McCall Jr, 58, passed away peacefully in his sleep, Thursday, July 3, 2025 in Cross City, FL. He is preceded in death by his father, Ray McCall and brother, David Lamb.

Jimmy was born on February 4, 1967. A lifelong resident of Dixie County – He was a self-taught master mechanic – learning at a very early age to repair almost anything that rolled, had gears or you could put a wrench to. He loved speed, wheels, water and mud and all the fun he had doing those things.

He loved his family and friends fiercely and deeply – always doing everything possible to make sure they were taken care of and had what they needed. He was always there when you needed him.

Jimmy began his career earlier than most. At age 12, he worked on small engines and motors with Mr. Joe George. Over time, he was employed by several area businesses and later ran his own shop for 15 years: working most recently with Johnson Logging. He served his community as certified first responder and always supported 4-H and FFA activities however he could.

Jimmy is survived by his loving wife Donna, children Cale and Grace McCall, Tanner (Liza) Robson, Chase Robson, his mother, Mary Ann McCall, his sister, Lynn (Ken) Hamilton, nephews: Kason and Seth Hamilton, Joshua and Caleb Lamb, two precious grandchildren Raelynn and Rhett Robson and a host of extended family and friends. He will be forever loved and always missed.
