“ Our Sugar Bear; my JoJo. You were absolutely one of a kind with the kindest soul and biggest heart. You could make me laugh like no other, were my best friend even on my darkest days, and never left me feeling unloved. I didn't deserve you, but was blessed to have you. Until we meet again sweet man, you'll be keeping our loved-ones good company in Heaven, and I'm sure you will be the life of the party. Love you to the moon and back!

“Dad! So much to process, so many memories, what if's and tears. This picture is one that I will always cherish of you and I. All I know is you were there when others weren't, you made sure Matthew and I were taken care of no matter what. You worked your fingers to the bone to make sure of it! I look at these grand kids of yours and see so much of you in them. The things they do, looks they give, and most definitely what they say. I know you are watching over all of us as we continue this journey in life without you. Give all our crew a big hug and squeeze for us. We love you and miss you but, it's never goodbye it's I'll see you later.

“I love everyone of my cousins. Joey was a favorite. He was the most kindest and gentle soul you could ever meet. In the same way he was the life of the party. Some of the laugh until you cry moments was created with him. He's definitely one of a kind. Loved him dearly and he will be missed. Love and prayers to the family. May God Bless..With Love Debby
