“ Joe, We first met in June of 2017 when I moved into your neighborhood. With both of us being born and raised in Pittsburgh, we shared many familiar childhood stories and memories. I enjoyed the time we spent together working on several DIY projects around the house as well as the many laughs we shared when discussing some of the craziness going on around us. I will miss stopping by to talk after a round of golf or enjoying those great baked beans you made for the Alley BBQ's. You brightened so many lives my friend and I hope we will meet again someday beyond the pearly gates. Ciao for now...Tony M
