

Julia Pollard

“ When I was in middle school, Debbie became one of my best friends (and we still are to this day) !! Debbie’s mom Julia was always so warm and loving and welcoming! Whenever I’d come to hang out with her down in Gulfport, the door was truly always open and myself & Debbie’s other friends were always welcome. Julia, with John, have created a wonderful family and are leaving quite the legacy. I’m so happy that I got to know Julia through Debbie. I know this is a hard time right now, but I can imagine that Julia is with Jesus, pain-free, and partying it up in Heaven ... and if anything, she’s probably making sure the door up there is open ☐ — all my love, Sarah (Johnson) Kruck

“ I knew Julia through the Springhouse Quilt Guild. She was a quiet sweet sprit. She will be missed by the ladies at Springhouse. Melva and I had a wonderful visit with her and her husband not too long ago. It was a blessing to spend a little time with them both. Praying for the family.

“ Even though Julia was my niece we were only two years apart. From the time we were able to write we wrote letters back and forth. The beginning ones were things like ‘What’s your favorite color? Mine is blue this week!’ (Changed frequently as a child!). As we got older we exchanged recipes that we often got at Home-Ec or found in magazines. More recently we traded recipe websites. Julia will sorely be missed!

“ She always had a smile on her face she just had sunshine and the glory of God shining off of her I met her attending church with her here in Cross City and I just adored her and brother John so much I loved to see the love on her face when brother John would be up on the stage singing she is going to be greatly missed by her church family
