“ I had the pleasure of teaching Luke this year. He was the sweetest and most respectful young man. He worked hard and always tried his very best. He enjoyed sharing fishing and hunting pictures and stories with his classmates and me. He was such a quiet and humble young man- a really great kid! He will be dearly missed and fondly remembered. I am heartbroken! Love, Ms. Evans

“ Luke has been a part of my life for the last nine years, and he has been a bright spot for all that time. I am numbed by the reality of his passing. I pray for Luke, and for his family, especially his loving father, Daniel. To the entire Mills family, Joan and I offer our most sincere and heartfelt condolences at such a difficult time. May God Almighty grant you peace and strength as you navigate the difficult days that lie ahead. Joan and I will remember and hold fond memories of Luke for the rest of our days...
