“ I just learned of Miss Lynette’s passing. When my parents and I lived in Live Oak, my mother, and Miss Lynette were very good friends. Our family spent a lot of time together, both at first Baptist Church, and at each other’s homes. She and my mother took me, Stacey, and David to the New Kids On the Block concert. That is a memory I will never forget. When my parents and I moved back to Tallahassee, we still kept in touch until they moved to Perry. When I got to see Miss Lynette at a make up party several years ago, I will never forget the strong hug she gave me. I really do hate that our families drifted apart, but she left a lasting memory.
