

Mamie Lou Futch

August 27, 1934 - April 15, 2024

Mamie Lou Corbin Futch, 89, of Steinhatchee, Florida, passed away peacefully after an extended illness, surrounded by her family on Monday, April 15, 2024 at her daughter's residence in Lafayette County, FL.

Mamie Lou was born in Dixie County, FL to Tom and Mamie Corbin on August 27, 1934. She was raised in the Wilcox area of Gilchrist County FL. She married William Jesse "Bill Jess" Futch on March 29, 1952. Together the couple had 8 children and made their life and home in Rocky Creek, FL.

Ms Mamie Lou was a faithful wife, mother, homemaker. She also served for many years as a bus driver for Dixie County Schools. She was a charter member of First Baptist Church of Jena where she was an active member of the church from its inception in 1977 until her health began to decline in 2022. She loved her family, her friends, fishing and good ol' gospel music, but above all she loved her Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Her love and obedience to Him was evident to all those who knew and loved her. It shone through her service to others, the way she conducted her daily life, and how she did all things for His glory. She was the very definition of a Proverbs 31 woman.

She is survived by her daughters, Linda Hicks of Rocky Creek, FL, Barbara Allen of Cantonment, FL, Elizabeth "Sang" Cranford (Keith) of Branford, FL, Rene Hoffman (Danny) of Steinhatchee, FL; and her only son William Jesse

"Bill, Jr" Futch, Jr.; sons-in-laws, Rev. Jimmy Corbin of Mayo, FL and Douglas Lindsey of Citrus Springs, FL; she is also survived by her nieces (who were like her own daughters) Shelly Ross (Bebo) of Rocky Creek, FL, Flossie Riels (David) of Cross City, FL, Dot Futch Woods (Clint) of Dixie County, FL, and Clara Nell Polk of Cross City, Florida; 14 grandchildren; 27 great grandchildren; 4 great-great grandchildren and countless nieces and nephews that she loved dearly.

Ms. Mamie was preceded in death by her parents, Tom and Mamie Corbin, her husband, Bill Jess Futch, her sisters, Bertie Hines, Susie Mae Keen, and Pauline Ridgeway, her brothers, Hollis Corbin, Wallace Corbin, Barry Corbin, Buddy Corbin and Bobby Futch, Sr, her infant daughter, Billie Jo Futch, her daughters, Olif Jane "Rabbit" Lindsey and Delores Corbin, her sons-in-laws, Dennis Allen and Leon Hicks, her grandson, Logan Hicks, her granddaughter Luanne Hicks, and great granddaughter, Kasey Frierson.

Funeral services for Ms. Mamie will be held at 12:00 PM Thursday, April 18, 2024 at the First Baptist Church of Jena, with Rev. Jimmy Corbin and Rev. Jeffery Vaught officiating. Interment will follow at Mt. Olive Cemetery in Steinhatchee. The family will receive friends at the church one hour prior to the service.

Arrangements have been placed under the care of the Rick Gooding Funeral Home Cross City Chapel, with locations in Cross City 352-498-5400 and Chiefland 352-493-0050. Please sign the online guest book at rickgoodingfuneralhomes.com

“ I enjoyed being with her in therapy and church at the Rehab center. She would sing like a Angel and clap her. Hand's in church and pat her feet to the music. I would get her to do her exercise in therapy. She was so funny. Jack just about got hit in the head with the bar he gave her. He asked me if I did that I told him no. Who me I wouldn't do a thing like that. He said yeah when you are a sleep. You are innocent person. She is a blessing and a Angel around anyone. I feel like a child of God.when we were together. She had a face that would shine bright with the love of Jesus Christ. She was a blessing to everyone. She will be missed dearly. Love y'all too 💕💕.

“ So very sorry I will not be able to attend the services due to work but I am so so glad I was able to grow up knowing such a special soul as Mrs Mamie Lou! She was always smiling and when she sang all you wanted to do was sing along and smile because you knew Mrs Mamie Lou was right there where she wanted to be doing exactly what she loved to do worshipping and praising the lord. Such fond memories growing up and I sure have missed and will miss her big ol hugs. Much love to her family and sending prayers for comfort. Love from The Harts, Travis, Ashley (Philmon), Tatum, Truitt, and Tracker.
