

Martha N. Dunnam

August 26, 1950 - November 19, 2016

MARTHA NOLAN DUNNAM, 66, of Cross City passed away Saturday, November 19, 2016.

Mrs. Dunnam was born August 26, 1950 in Dunedin, Florida to the late Forest and Annette Nolan, but had spent most of her life in the Cross City area. She worked for several years at the Langston Insurance Agency and later the Hill and Cobb Insurance Agency here in Cross City. Mrs. Dunnam was a member and played piano at Scrub Creek Baptist Church and was the Director for the Girls in Action Bible Camp.

Mrs. Dunnam is survived by her son Lee Dunnam (Libby), her daughters Amy Johnson (J.D. Deane), Brandy Hunt (Gary), and Jessica Dunnam, her sister Lisa Brock, eight grandchildren, other family members, and friends. She was preceded in death by her husband Andrew Dunnam.

Funeral services for Mrs. Dunnam will be held 11:00 AM Saturday, November 26, 2016 at the Rick Gooding Cross City Chapel, with Bro. Cody Lord officiating. Interment will follow in the Scrub Creek Baptist Church Cemetery. The family will receive friends at the funeral home Friday evening from 6 – 8 PM.

“ So sorry to hear of your passing. We didn't learn of this until Renee, at CVS, told us around the beginning of December. There is no question, your family was devastated by your loss-you (both) were loved so deeply, by family, friends, and the community. Finally, you are with The Lord, in perfect sleep, where, when he awakens the faithfully departed, you will see him as he is, and be filled with Holy, perfect love. Your reward is with him, and it is a walk that we continue, carrying your memory and example with us, until we are all reunited with you, and all our brothers and sisters who belong to Jesus Christ, our Lord. We love and miss you terribly.
