“ *What a beautiful picture of my sister, MARY. We did not grow up together, but throughout the years, whenever we had a chance to visit together, she was always so sweet and easy to talk to. I remember a parade in Sarasota, FL when we were both very young, all dressed up in Easter bunny rabbit finery being pulled in a wagon down Main street in the annual Sarasota Easter parade. It was the late 30's. We all seemed to move around a lot. We got together in Marion, Indiana, Stuart, FL , Steinhatchee, FL and Sarasota, FL and always had a good time eating good food and telling stories - especially Mary's husband, Jim. He was the story teller in the family, and Mary always sat patiently listening to Jim's stories with a smile and endless patience to the stories she had heard over and over again. Every one who knew Mary will miss her sweetness and her lovely smile. She will be missed by her loving friends in Steinhatchee and just knowing that she is not with us anymore is hard to imagine. I know heaven opened it's door wide for Mary and she is at peace with her beloved Jim.
Love from your sister, Carmen Ramsey*
