“ It's hard to pick one memory of someone that was a 2nd mom for 18 yrs of my life. You help my parents raise my brother and I and we're always doing everything for everyone and anyone. Some of my earliest memories were going on a bus ride with you around town during the day and you reading me a story at bedtime. When I couldn't sleep you would rub my back or sing to me until you put yourself to sleep. Haha! You were my scary movie buddy that would stay up late watching Godzilla, King Kong or Tales from the Darkside. You introduced me to Elvis Presley and The Everly Brother's while I'd run around the house playing. One particular memory we always laughed about was how I talked you into roller skating with me and you fell and cracked your tail bone. Why that was funny, I'm not sure but you always laughed and made me laugh about it. You helped my mom so much while she worked by making meals and doing the chores. What a blessing you were to many people. You weren't just Momma Mary to me but to all my friends, they all loved you as well. You took care of my dad when he grew ill until he passed away and then continued to help our family by taking care of my grandfather when was also ill. I'm truly thankful to have had you in my life Mary and love you dearly. I'm especially thankful that you brought Veda into our life!! I'll miss you but find peace knowing you're in splendor of Heaven wrapped in the glory of our Lord, Jesus where we'll be reunited again.
