“ I am so sorry for your loss.

My last year at Mill Hill was Rex's first year in Fairfield. He tried very hard to make my last year a very enjoyable one. He always had a kind word and always possessed positive energy upon entering my class room. I shall always have found memories of that time at Mill Hill.

Remember the love that Rex had for all of you. He spoke so lovingly of his family.

*Most sincerely,
Elizabeth Power*

“ My sincere condolences to Rex's family. He always spoke lovingly of each and every one of his family. I worked for Rex during his years as Principal of Mill Hill School.

He had an infectious smile and lots of energy. I remember going with him on a trip to Washington, D.C., to accept a Blue Ribbon Award for our school's performance — what an honor for Mill Hill. I must say that he was the best darn tour guide as he showed me the sights during what precious free time we had between scheduled meetings

*May he Rest In Peace!
Mostly sincerely, Donna*

“ Rex was my Children’s youth pastor, he was family to us. My kids loved him and so did my husband Duane and I. My heart is so sad today. He was a funny, loving man. His family came for a thanksgiving one year we loved them as well. My kids have great memories of times spent together. He lived in a house on our property so he would come for dinner all the time. He stayed with my children one time when we went away. He told me I will never brush a MISSYS hair again, she cried the whole time haha! Julie said mom it was so funny. He would take the brush out and she would cry.. He loved going into Washington so I would go with him sometimes to get a break and Duane would stay home with children. We would always have a great time together we were best friends. Rex was always a so fun for all the kids. He loved them all. He also loved his family and talked about them all the time. His sister Barbara had twin girls and he would show us pictures all the time. He would say how beautiful and smart they both were. He was so proud of Barbara and would tell us what a great mom she was. His parents were his cheerleaders he adored them. Rex was a one of a kind friend and will hold a very dear spot in my , my husbands and the hearts of my children’s. He is home with Jesus and his monma and is suffering no more. I truly loved this man. May he Rest In Peace . Jeanne Whitman

“ I am so sorry for your loss. We crossed paths with Rex as Phil Brown was our Principal at Cos Cob School and many of our staff quickly became friends with both of them. Some of the happiest memories I have of Rex and Phil are the parties we had at their beautiful home in Redding, CT. Rex was funny, compassionate about his friends and of course their pets. We absolutely adored Rex and were so happy to have met him through our dear friend and Principal Phil. We shared many happy times and I feel such sorrow at his passing. A wonderful man who touched many lives. May he rest in peace with those who have gone before him. God bless you all and know that many staff at Cos Cob School in Cos Cob, CT mourn the passing of a special friend.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. Rex was a loving, caring principal who worked tirelessly for his students and teachers. Having worked with him for three years as PTA president gave me a lot of insight into how hard he worked for his school and how much he cared for and loved his charges. God Bless you, Rex.
