*Thank You, Sharon, We just returned home from a beautiful service at his home that honored Mike as a man and father, and he was buried on his property in a special casket that was made by his own son. What a wonderful way to honor his Dad.

“ As pre-teens and young teenagers, Mike and I were inseperable. We had many of our lifetime firsts together. We ran a speaker wire from my house, down the alley, to his. We hooked a couple batteries to it and attached some old speakers and microphones we dug out of the phone company dumpster and had our own little telephone system. We camped out, built forts, rebuilt bicycles, tried to make a go-cart out of an old riding lawn mower.... for years, we planned a cross country trip we would make when we graduated from high school--never happened. But, we had some great times. Good bye old friend.....
