

Nancy Monaghan

June 28, 1942 - June 1, 2018

Mrs. Nancy Monaghan, 75, of Old Town, Florida, passed away Friday, June 1, 2018.

Mrs. Monaghan was born on June 28, 1942 in Chicago, Illinois. She began her working career working as a customer service clerk for Illinois Bell in 1960 until 1972. She started with Wadell and Reed selling life insurance and mutual funds in Highland, Indiana. She moved to Pinellas Park and continued to work for Wadell and Reed until she and her husband started a printing business "Q Graphics" in 1982. They grew the business into a major print and graphics company and sold in 1989. They then opened O'Monaghan's Irish Pub, a restaurant and bar, selling the Pub in 1993 and moved to Old Town. They purchased the Trading Post on 349 in December of 1993.

Mrs. Monaghan was a member of the American Legion Auxiliary, Old Town Chapter and was a Methodist.

She is survived by her husband of 48 years, Peter Monaghan of Old Town and brother Robert Wantroba of Hebron, Indiana.

Services will be held Thursday, June 7, 2018 at 6:00pm at Rick Gooding Funeral Home Chapel in Cross City. A visitation will be held between the hours of 4 and 6 prior to the service.

“ We would like to express our deepest sympathy to Rory on the death of his beloved wife Nancy. Although we lived many miles apart she was always in our thoughts. We will always remember her for her kindness to us when we visited her in Florida, or when she and Rory came here to Ireland . Now in the arms of Jesus , May she rest in perfect peace . Always remembered by Rory's brother Michael and wife Maura.
