

Norman Campbell

October 30, 1942 - November 23, 2025

Norman E. Campbell, age 83, passed away on November 23, 2025 surrounded by his loving friends.

Born October 30, 1942, in Concord, NH. Son of the late Austin B. and late Virginia K. (Hay) Campbell.

Norman worked in the family's bakery-diner in Newburyport, MA, until a couple of years after his father died in 1963. He then worked at Trelleborg Sealing Solutions, Somersworth, NH [formally Diaphragm Industry Inc., Portsmouth, NH]. Being a big fan of Star Trek, he got a kick out of the company's name ending in Borg.

Norm continued to live at home to take care of his mom and 2 young sisters.

After surviving renal cancer in 2006, Norman retired, bought a camper, and became a snow bird traveling from Presque Isle, Maine, to Cross City, Florida, occasionally heading west to visit Yellowstone and to visit his sister in California, eventually settling in Cross City.

Norman was a very hard-working, honest person, always willing to help someone in need. Only asking in return that the person pay it forward.

He is survived by his sister, Paula Valliere, of Amesbury, MA; sister, Cathy Olson; and brother-in-law, Walter Olson, both of Amesbury, MA. He also leaves his Niece, Rhapsody Plante, and her husband, Brian; his nephews, Rhawn Valliere, Garth Valliere, and his wife, Renu, and Camden Valliere. He also had 2 Grand Nieces, 7 Grand Nephews, and 1 Great-Grand Nephew. His dear friends Alison, Miss Ann, Miss Barb, and the many wonderful people at the Shady Oaks RV & Mobile Home Park.

He was preceded in death by his parents and his sister Virginia Jane Campbell who passed Nov. 29, 2024.

He was loved and will be missed by many as he 'hit the trail' for the last time.

“ Norman Campbell entered my life in late 2023 but in that short time spending time with this gentle soul has enriched my life immensely through his appreciation of kindness and his words of wisdom, his common sense approach on life, and his sense of humor. His upbeat greeting everything you saw him, and the comfortable goodbye as you left him. This man was a gentleman always with a light inside that not everyone took the time to see.

He was loved and will be surely missed.
