“ I'm so thankful to Rick Gooding Funeral Homes for bringing Aunt Rabbit's service today live! We are sending you all virtual hugs and kisses. We love you AUNT RABBIT! You hung on until God was ready for you, and that gives me the strength to know that IT'S ALWAYS WORTH THE FIGHT to not give up or give in, no matter how rough it can get. Now you can enjoy the fruits of your labor. XOXO

“ Our babysitter growing up. Don't know how she handled all us hoodlums but every time I've seen her after she always said I was always the best kid. Lol
She never changed even if it had been 10 years since I saw her We hugged and would talk about growin up or all the new babies in the family. Mrs. Rabbit was and is a very loved person. She will be missed. Love to y'all from us Harts. ❤️

I met Melissas mom when we were on the pontoon boat scalloping. She taught us all how to shuck the scallops. What a wonderful person. Felt like i knew her forever. It was a great day to remember.
