“ I will always remember sitting in the couch watching which ever rerun of whatever western was on at the moment. Listening to you talk about hunting and fishing. Game nights at momma and daddys house every new years eve and eating chili. Sitting at the dining room table and talking smack about who would win yahtzee this time. Sneaking in your candy stash even though you knew every time. And just sitting and having a good ole conversation about whatever had taken place at the time. To know that with your nieces and nephews your memory will live on. I will tell the girls all these stories and they too will know Uncle Yicky was an amazing man. Say hey to Uncle Clay, Poppey, PawPaw, and Grandma for me. I love you more than words will ever be able to express. Rest easy!

“ Sissy,

I just don't know what to say. I can't even imagine your pain and heartbreak. I love you so much. Please lean on your family, we will hold you up by the strength of Jesus.

I have so many wonderful memories of our times together when Ricky was wanting to get out and do things. The times y'all walked this river at night with me, and Krista in the stroller. The times y'all and butch and I loaded up in the front seat of the truck and went "rabbit hunting" in the middle of the night. The times we all spent together at Thanksgiving and Christmas. The times we went to the natural bridge and cooked roast on the makeshift grill. The time it snowed here and we all loaded up in the old red '67 Pontiac and went to Thomasville because we thought surely there would be more snow there, NOT.

How when me and Ricky argued with each other I always called him Harold and he would call me by my first name which he knew I hated, it was all in fun.

So many more happy, good memories. I m grateful for every one of them and will always keep them in my heart.

Ricky is surely missed and he was so loved by all of us. I hope he knew how much he was loved.

Sissy, I'm just at a loss for words, but I have many hugs and broad shoulders any time!

“ What an amazing man and Uncle. He will truly be missed. He was loved beyond anything he could ever have imagined. As you get older sometimes we move away and don't get to see one another as much but praise Jesus for memories. I am so thankful to have had him in my life and I will always remember the laughs, the games, the tacos I out ate with you, watching gun smoke, looking at your arrowhead collection that you and Aunt linda spent many times together hunting, you sitting on the couch eating Raisin Bran and hotdogs. The first oyster I ever ate was sitting out by the fire with you and mom and dad bear aunt linda uncle clay. You dared me and I did it and I was hooked from then on. I know you can't read this now and I hate that I didn't get to tell you how I do remember so many awesome things growing up with you but maybe by chance God will give you the message. I love you and I miss you so very much. Rest well Uncle “ icky “
