“ My heart is broken💔. I miss our numerous phone calls, whether we were laughing, crying or making plans. Her amazing son Lindsay is truly an Angel on Earth. My prayers are with him & Randy, she loved them both so dearly. And her grandpups Ace & Tuck. I'll continue to listen to her voice-mail to hear her voice. Love you girl (that's how we always ended our calls.) RIP , until we meet again, Dance with the Angels .

“Rosalyn was my neighbor and good friend High Springs. She bought the house next door to us and we enjoyed her company for years. When my oldest son died suddenly at 39 she pretty much guided and in some things took care of things we didn't understand how to do. We watched her raise Lindsey by herself. Good mother, good neighbor, hard worker. So sorry to her of her passing.”

“Rosalyn was my big cousin that I grew up around. Aside from my grandpa, and the Cottle's, the rest of my family was in Virginia. Rosalyn was always a strong, determined woman that taught me more lessons than she was ever aware of. She gave me advice that I'll never forget, and some that I wish I would have made different choices because of. She was a sigh of relief for me when I was throwing my dad's surprise party, as well as when my dad had hip surgery. She was a kind friend to my boyfriend in a room full of strangers, and she made him feel like he had known her for years. That's just the kind of person she was. My immediate family and I have had so many wonderful times with this beautiful, beachy soul! She will be greatly missed, and I will always think of her with every beach sunrise I take in! Lots of love to her, and may she rest easy.”
