“ Ruby.... We never knew each other but my father was Vernon Pryor also. I had found you by accident through Ancestry.com, I'm sorry I never reached out. I was raised as an only child and had always wanted a sister. May we be reunited on the other side of this world. In that place some call heaven. Rest in paradise my sweet sister. God bless. ❤️

“ Ruby was 9.5 years older than me, but such a vital part of my early life. Momma was a working single mother which put a lot of responsibility on Ruby. There were 5 of the rest of us and we all loved her so. She took such good care of us. She and AD married young and moved in with us. That was perfect for us because Ruby was like a mother to us. Their children were raised alongside of us for a few years and were very close growing up together. When I was 10, Momma made the decision to move us to Georgia and our little haven was split up. I missed my sister and was always so glad when they would come to see us. We had a soul connection. I could tell her anything and she would listen. She always come to my defense when needed. Our hearts were knit together the day I was born and always will be, my forever best friend.

Since you passed, I've been a little taken back because I haven't really been that sad or grieved. I thought about it today and just burst into tears of Joy, thinking, “why should I be sad, when I have assurance of exactly where she is, in the blessed arms our savior. No more pain or grief. What a beautiful ending to your story, Ruby. I am satisfied and at peace.”
