“ Charles and I met Sarah when our daughter Debby met and married her son Edward.

From that time on we became very good friends. If we had a family outing we would always include her and Charles and they always did the same with us. Our grand children loved her dearly and I know she loved them the same. I loved to just sit and listen to her talk, and she loved to talk. Our prayers and sympathy are with the sons and daughter in laws and all the grand children. Also all of her sisters and brothers. May God be with you all at this time of grieving.

“ She was my friend! We grew up together and shared so many memories. Even though we did not get to visit often when we did it was as though it was just yesterday. Prayers that God comfort you and the many wonderful memories help you all through this difficult time. Love & Hugs, Myrtle Driggers Currie Austin
