

Sundra Dunnam

January 9, 1944 - January 20, 2025

Sundra Loretta Dunnam passed away unexpectedly on January 20, 2025 at her home in Old Town, Florida. She was born in Robertsdale, Alabama on January 9, 1944 to the late Roy H. Weekley and Kathryn L. Weekley. She moved to Old Town, Florida in 1965.

Sundra drove a school bus for the Dixie County school system for 25 years. She was a devoted Christian and a member of McCrabb Baptist Church. She loved her children, grandchildren, great grandchildren, and her only great great Grandson Waylon with all her heart. She had the kindest and most selfless soul that you would ever meet, she always put the needs of others before her own. She will be greatly missed by everyone that was blessed to know her.

She is preceded in death by her father and mother Roy and Kathryn Weekley, the love of her life Charles Dunnam, her son Eddie Dunnam, her Granddaughter Kourtney Lambert and many other family members.

Sundra is survived by her daughter Debby Roberts (Edward) and daughter Malisa Roberts (Mike), 8 Grandchildren, 11 Great Grandchildren, 1 great great grandson, and many others that she considered family.

She will be so missed, but we know that she is peacefully walking the streets of gold with her loved ones.

Services for Sundra will be held 1:00 PM Friday, January 24, 2025 at the McCrabb Baptist Church, Old Town. Visitation will be one hour prior to the service at the church. Burial will follow at the McCrabb Baptist Church Cemetery.

Arrangements have been placed under the care of Rick Gooding Funeral Home Cross City Chapel, with locations in Cross City 352-498-5400 and Chiefland 352-493-0050. Please sign the online guest book at rickgoodingfuneralhomes.com

“ We spoke at church when I visited recently. We talked shop. Lol. If you can guess? Yes, it was about our new electric school buses. All the info and how they drive. We shared some memories of when she drove and shared some laughs. I'm gonna miss our school buses memory talks. ❤️
