“ Tammy you surely will be missed by your Moose Lodge members and friends. I'm going to miss giving you money to play extra songs on the jukebox and see you dance. I know you are singing and dancing with the Angels. As the Chaplain of the Moose Lodge you will forever be in our hearts. I had plans to go to your memorial but I am sick so please forgive me. Love and hugs. Watch over us.

“ Aunt Tammy, I am so proud to be your niece. For 33 years you changed my life for the better always and touched the lives of so many others. You have always been the bright light to so many people you loved so dearly and it will always be that way. You could go anywhere and make friends. You danced your heart out often and brought countless smiles and laughs to anyone you encountered. Thank you for giving me infinite reasons to smile, laugh, and love. I loved being with you. I loved every single minute shared with you and Aunt Gretchen. I will forever hear your voice telling me “this way, that way” and “two bunnies”. I love you forever, all our love - Ariel, Dan and Hailee
