“ My heart is saddened with the news of Tom's passing. Tom was a great man full of love and compassion. During my tween and teenage years he was always there for me and my siblings. Actually he was there for all the kids in Odessa. From a mentor to a father figure and a great friend he was one of a kind. He was an amazing deputy and cared for his community. I send my deepest condolences to his wife, children and family. May his memory live in your heart as it will live in mine. Thank you God for our paths crossing. Prayers to all of you.

Sincerely,
Shannon Chattin-Combast

“ Tommy was my best (and a great) friend just after I graduated from Chamberlain High School. I'll always treasure those many times we paled around together on weekends. And he married a great wife. I haven't seen him in many, many years and I hope his life and family gave him GREAT satisfaction. Condolences to Susie. Mike Fuller - now in Crystal River (mfuller@atlantic.net)
