

Warren A. Hallman

May 7, 1933 - January 19, 2020

Warren Allen Hallman, 86, of Chiefland passed away January 19, 2020.

Mr. Hallman was born May 7, 1933 in Pierson, Florida, but was a Levy County resident for many years after moving here from Gainesville, Florida. He had retired as a Corporal from the Florida Highway Patrol, was a Veteran of the United States Airforce, was the Loan Vice President at Capital City Bank, and had been a Federal Court Security Officer. Mr. Hallman was a member of the First United Methodist Church of Chiefland, had been on the LARC board, and was on the Pastor Parrish Committee at the Cedar Key United Methodist Church. In his spare time, he enjoyed doing lawn work and spending time with his grandchildren.

Mr. Hallman is survived by his wife Kay Hallman, his sons Glenn Hallman (Susan) of Chiefland, John Hallman of Chiefland, Myles Smith (Tammy) of Ft. White, FL, and Russell Hallman (Amy) of Chiefland, his daughter Teri Jones (David) of Chiefland, his daughter-in-law Hideko Hallman, his sister Patsy Gamble of Deland, FL, his grandchildren Ashley, David, Emily, Laycee, Becca, Lauren, Landon, Ali, and Hayden, his great-grandchildren Riley and Ada, and other extended family members. He was preceded in death by his parents Lovic and Maggie Hallman, his first wife Lillian West Hallman, his sons David Hallman and Mark Hallman, his grandson Dustin Smith, his sister Anna Lou Hardee, and his brother J.E. Hallman.

Funeral services for Mr. Hallman will be held 4:00 PM Thursday, January 23, 2020 at the First United Methodist Church of Chiefland, with Rev. Barry Andrews officiating. The family will have a private interment service at Methodist Cemetery in Pierson, FL at a later date.

In lieu of flowers the family requests memorial donations be made to Haven Hospice.

Arrangements have been placed under the care of Rick Gooding Funeral Home Chiefland, Florida 352-493-0050 and Cross City, Florida 352-498-5400. Please sign the online guest book at rickgoodingfuneralhomes.com
